

Baltic Exchange Risk Forum

Monday 4 June 2018 | Yacht Club of Greece

On the occasion of Posidonia 2018, the Baltic Exchange will be hosting a Forum focusing on the issue of risk in the freight and shipping markets, the challenges and opportunities that these can present and what is available to help members manage their exposure.

A wide-ranging programme of presentations and discussions will address key issues - spaces are limited and early registration is encouraged.

Address: Yacht Club of Greece, Ναυτικός Όμιλος Ελλάδος Karagiorgi Servias 18, Pireas 185 33

To register: tinyurl.com/BEX-Posi18

PROGRAMME

11:00

Forum registration & coffee

11:30-12:00

An A, B, C (and D & E) of how the Baltic helps members manage risk:

Assessments

Baltic code

Containers

Dispute resolution

Escrow services

Mark Jackson

CEO

Baltic Exchange

12:00-12:20

Dry market fundamentals

Marc Pauchet

Senior Research Manager

Maersk Broker

12:20-12:40

A perfect match? Physical indexation and the FFA market

Duncan Dunn

Director

SSY Futures

12:40-13:10

What cannot be ignored – the growing importance of FFAs in physical freight

John Banaszkiwicz

Freight Investor Services

13:10-13:30

BDRY ETF: Democratizing investing in Shipping

John Kartsonas

Managing Partner

Breakwave Advisors

13:30-14:00

Panel discussion:

What are the commercial implications of the 2020
sulphur cap?

Chair: Mark Jackson, CEO,
Baltic Exchange

► Theofanis Anastasiadis

Projects Manager

Starbulk

► Brian Nixon

Managing Director

Lavinia Bulk Ltd.

► Angelica Kemene

Head of Market Analysis & Intelligence

Optima Shipbrokers

14:00

Lunch

For regular programme updates, visit thebalticbriefing.com/bex-posi18 or for enquires, email marketing@balticexchange.com